"No poems can please nor live long which are written by water drinkers. Ever since Bacchus enrolled poets, as half-crazed, amongst his Satyrs and Fauns, the sweet Muses have usually smelt of wine in the morning ... " - Horace (65-8 B.C.)

May 2, 2001

Thanks to Phil and Naomi for hosting and presenting some excellent values from Argentina. Phil has special alliances with the weather gurus since the day was pleasant enough to be outside. (Phil can you assure us next tasting will be the same?) The Wines:

Warm-up	Chandon Brut Fresco Sparkling NV	$11.99 (nice summer quaffer)
	Santa Julia Torrontes 2000	$ 6.99
	Catena Agrelo Vineyard Chardonnay 1999	$17.99
	Alamos (Catena) Malbec 1999	$10.99
	Valentin Bianchi San Rafael Malbec 1997	$14.99
#1 Best	Alamos (Catena) Bonarda 1999	$10.99
2nd Best	Valentin Bianchi San Rafael Cab. Sauv 1996	$14.99

Next meeting will be May 20, 2 PM at the Wilson's, where Nan Slick will let us know what all the fashionable people are drinking with their picnic lunches. Please call Becky or Dean to reserve your seat by Wednesday May 16. As usual, munchies are appreciated. June will find us at the Blosverens' A WEEK EARLY make a note on your calendars, Bill Eisberg will be doing something Italian (wine that is) that promises to be wonderful.

In Vino Veritas,

Walt
